Thank You

Thank you for forming your new company using our business incorporations services. We really hope you are pleased with the service you received.

Now that you have your new company you will undoubtedly be planning to start trading. At Omega Accountancy, we have years of experience helping businesses get off to a flying start.

Some of the services we offer are:

VAT Registration – We can take care of everything from making the initial application to monitoring the progress of the registration and answering queries raised by the tax authorities.

Bookkeeping – Maintaining proper records is an important part of running a company. We can help you ensure that you claim all allowable expenditure and submit timely and accurate VAT returns and accounts.

In doing this, you can also gain a good source of management information which can let you know how profitable your business is.

Talk to us about our fixed price fee structure and our exclusive introductory rates available to companies formed through Complete Formations.

We can of course help you with submitting your company's statutory accounts and corporation tax returns.

At Omega we believe that by being progressive and providing a modern service we can offer real value to our clients.

We look forward to hearing from you to discuss your particular needs and to answer any questions you may have.

In the meantime, we thank you again for choosing us for your company formation and wish you every success with your new venture.

Omega Accountancy.

A Modern Practice for Today's Business

About us

Omega Accountancy is a progressive, modern firm of accountants.

Whilst we maintain traditional values of high professional standards for all of the work with which we are involved, we also believe that today's business required multi-disciplinary, pro-active accountants capable of adding value to their business.

Every accountant at Omega is a qualified business practitioner, not only in terms of their academic qualifications but also their practical business experience.

Our aim is to provide first rate accountancy and support staff who know businesses and more importantly, how they work.

Price is Important

In short, the premium that our clients pay is not what many expect. We are unique in that we are one of the few practices around who proudly and openly publish our prices.

Our own business is an efficiently run organisation focused on accuracy, timeliness and above all, client satisfaction.

There are very few processes which occur in our business which are not design to add value to yours.

We invite you join us in experiencing a new approach to accountancy, one which utilising the latest technology and methods to produce a service which will be good for your business.
